

Jo McGoldrick

Recovery Partners

Jo has been consulting to Recovery Partners since early 2006 through her business Ms Money Penny Executive Services. Jo has assisted Recovery Partners with the administrative advice and support in setting up their office systems, policies and procedures. Jo provides financial reports to the directors weekly and also handles accounts receivable.

Prior to launching her consulting business, Jo worked in a wide range of roles providing executive services, principally in the legal industry. Key responsibilities included executive support, event management and marketing. Jo also ran the secretariat for national legal marketing associations, organising seminars and large conferences. Most recently, as Clerk of Chambers, Jo managed the business support function for a leading floor of Sydney barristers.
