

Raye Taylor

Recovery Partners

After working in the Fitness Industry in wide variety of roles for 10 years, Raye then moved into Jobnetwork, working with long term unemployed, homeless and drug dependent clients which presented many challenges. Raye has also worked in the private sector of recruitment, running a temp desk and industrial placements.

Raye has developed an ability to build strong and effective relationships with employers over the years; working with these employers closely and successfully placing them in work trials and ongoing placement.

Raye has a real passion for assisting and re-directing people into different career fields and firmly believes in never giving up on anybody.

Outside of work Raye enjoys cycling, running and swimming. Additionally, Raye loves to travel to challenging parts of the world.
