

Russell Brown

Recovery Partners

Russell Brown joined Recovery Partners in 2010 and since then has been a part of the OHS Consultancy Team.

Prior to Recovery Partners, Russell has worked in varying roles; the major ones being middle management, performance management and personal training. Throughout these roles, Russell gained valuable experience in OHS management tools, incident investigations and the management of OHS systems in the work place.

Russell has completed his Certificate IV in OHS, Human Resources, Transport in Distribution and Personal Training. The experience he has gained throughout his studies and within his career has led him to develop strong leadership and management skills.

Russell understands the importance of OHS in the workplace and goes out of his way to ensure that the client's needs and expectations are adhered to.

Within Recovery Partners, Russell ensures that each and every client receives precise and accurate information relating to OHS matters. He ensures Recovery Partners is promoted correctly and looks for opportunities to help build the name of the business.

Outside of Recovery Partners, Russell enjoys spending time with his family and keeping fit and healthy.
